SIGURD ANDERSON
GOVERNOR

PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the printing trade in the United States has contributed much to improve the American way of life through the use of the printed word; and

WHEREAS, commemoration should be made of the 247th anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin, January 17, 1706, in Boston; and

WHEREAS, Franklin was a printer in his early life, and on his retirement from the printing business, he devoted the remainder of his life to serving his country as a diplomat, inventor, scientist, and, primarily, a patriot; and

WHEREAS, 1953 has been designated as the 25th annual Printing Week throughout the United States, and it will be observed by the printing plants in South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby call upon the citizens of the State appropriately to pay tribute to the memory of Benjamin Franklin, one of America's foremost printers and statesmen, and to join together in observance of National Printing Week from January 11 to 17, 1953.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 3rd day of January, 1953.

Sigurd Anderson
Governor
